Library of Congress

Hon William J. Bryan arrived in Berlin yesterday and for the first time heard that several Democratic State conventions have endorsed him for the Presidential nomination in 1908; he said it was too early to speak about it, and defined the difference beween Democracy and Socialism——In the Senate yesterday, Mr. Simmons of North Carolina opposed the $150,000 claim of former Senator Marion Butler for acting as attorney for Indians in Washinkton——President Roosevelt yesterday had conferences with several members of Congress about proposed legislation to take supervision of the packing houses; one member says a bill will be passed that will have teeth and Senator Beveridge stated that to incorporate in the bill that the government shall pay for inspection would defeat the bill——The House Committee on Agriculture yesterday for six house discussed the proposed packing house inspection bill, but maintained secrecy——The Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections yesterday reported, giving strong reasons for the expulsion of Mormon Senator Reed Smoot, among the majority signing the report being Senator Overman; Smoot was present when the report was made, and when Senator Bailey stated that the only way for the Senate to get rid of him was to expel him, he broadly smiled.——At the joint annual meeting of the Georgia and Florida Bankers' Associations in Atlanta yesterday, United States Treasurer Chas H. Treat delivered an address, in which he suggested the issue of bills of small denominations to relieve banks during the movement of crops——President Roosevelt was yesterday urged to interfere in the case of J. Matthews Fortner, of South Carolina, who deserted the navy to become a Baptist minister——New York markets: Money on call easy 2 3-4 to 3 1-4 per cent., ruling rate 3, closing bid 2 3-4; offered at 3; spot cotton quiet, 11.25; flour dull; wheat steady, No. 2 red 95 nominal elevator, corn firm, No. 2, 59 nominal elevator; oats firm, mixed 41 1-2; turpentine firm; rosin firm, strained common to good 4.00.

Dr. Osler now declares that soup is about the worse thing anybody can eat. Preachers can tolerate that theory of the doctor but if he were to issue a maledixit against chicken he would lose his reputation.

On the ground that "it was not an aggravated case," a court at Los Angeles, Cal., inflicted light punishment on a man who was charged with bigamy. Looks like that court got to looking at the provocation as well as the facts in the case.

Republican State conventions dare not do anything else than endorse Roosevelt. When they endorse him they approve what was in the Democratic platform and what was not mentioned in the Republican platform.

The daughter of a Pittsburg millionaire was sent to Rome, Italy, to keep her from marrying the son of another millionaire. In Rome she met up with a Baron and they were married June 6th. This comes of not letting girls have their own way when they first take a notion.

Says the Charlotte News: "The Weekly Tar Heel says, 'The life of the party is at the stake in this fight.' Yes, and slowly but surely burning there, not as a martyr, however." We like to see the party in a position where it will be always kicking against the stake.

A Northern exchange says: "The United States Senate has accepted Senator Burton's resignation with resignation." That's funny in two particulars, one on the face of it and the other that the Senate can demand or accept a resignation. A Senator represents the State and to the State he tenders his resignation.

The packers declare that their establishments are not dirty and in the same breath state that they are cleaning up and are going to make their employes do things in a more cleanly way. They are equal to the Wilmington darkey who told the judge he wasn't guilty but if he would let him off this time he would never steal another ham as long as he lived.

The proprietor of the Polish paper Gornoslazak has thrown up the sponge and quit the newspaper business, stating as his reason that in five years the editors have spent four and a half years in prison and paid $3,750 in fines. If American editors were put in jail and fined for things they say the jails would have to be enlarged and the per capita circulation be greater than $32.45.

STATE PHARMACISTS

Knights of Aesculapius Assemble Thursday of This Week at Wrightsville Beach.

EXAMINING BOARD TO-DAY.

Large Number of Applicants For License—Local Association Arranging to Cordially Receive the Visiting Druggists.

Delegates are already arriving for the twenty-seventh annual meeting of the North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association which will convene at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, on Thursday of this week. The outlook is for a very large attendance and a most pleasant session. Many of the druggists will be accompanied by their wives and members of their families and from a social standpoint the meeting will be quite enjoyable. Mr. G. Y. Watson, of Southport, the local secretary, and members of the Wilmington Association are planning to receive the body with unstinted hospitality and a number of features of entertainment will be provided for the guests.

To-day and to-morrow the North Carolina Board of Pharmacy will meet for the examination of applicants for license under the State law and when this work is over, the large number of embryo pharmacists and members of the examining board will join the other visitors for the general meeting. The party wil come up from the Seashore Hotel at 8:15 o'clock and leave immediately for the trip. A dinner will be served at Southport and the affair promises to be very delightful indeed. The trip over to the fort will probably be in the afternoon, special permission having been received from the government for the party to touch at the reservation. The committee in charge of this feature is composed of Messrs. George Y. Watson, of Southport; W. H. Green, James C. Munds and H. L. Fentress. ## SALE OF COUNTY PROPERTY

Commissioners Entertained Flattering Offer at Special Meeting Yesterday Afternoon—Technical Points.

On account of a technicality in the manner of calling the Board together, no action could be taken by the County Commissioners at their special meeting yesterday afternoon with reference to the sale of a portion of the old Court House property, mention of which was made in these columns Sunday morning. All members of the Board were present and the proposition was laid before them, but it was deemed expedient to have an opinion from a legal authority on the proposed sale and County Attorney Marsden Bellamy was sent for. Mr. Bellamy and the Commissioners looked up the law very carefully and found that a strict construction of the law required an official call for the meeting, signed by at least one member of the Board and notice of the proposed meeting at the Court House door and also in one newspaper published in the county. Commissioner Robertson signed the necessary call for the meeting and official notice of it is given for the required six days elsewhere in to-day's paper. It will be held next Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The proposition before the Board is an offer from Mr. James F. Woolvin, who offers $150 per front foot for the 16-foot alleyway between the old Court House building and the Odd Fellows' building, which is two feet east of the line. The property has a depth of 66 feet. Mr. Woolvin has an option on property in the rear of the lot belonging to the county and in case he makes the purchase, he will erect on the site a very handsome granite-front building which he will occupy as funeral diector. The $2,400 offered for the small tract is regarded as a good price and the Commissioners will make the sale without a doubt at something like that figure. The express authority to sell is contained in Chapter 23 of the Code Revisal, subsection 13 of Section 1318. The Board of Magistrates under the new law do not have to pass upon the sale.

In May 1903 the present lot on which the Odd Fellows' building is located was sold by the county to Cape Fear Lodge for $4.250. In fronts 80 feet on Princess street and runs along Third street, 66 feet. Over half that amount is now offered for a 16-foot front on Princess street.

Taylor Discharged; Odam Fined.

In Justice Bornemann's court yesterday there was an investigation of the affair between Messrs. John E. Taylor and John Odam, in the saloon of the former at Eighth and Castle streets last week. Odam was smashed in the head with a cocoa cola bottle and had to go to the hospital for repairs, but the evidence showed that Mr. Taylor was justifiable in the act in that Odam had been ordered out of the place and came back again in a threatening manner. It was also shown that he had thrown dirty water in the face of Mr. Taylor's clerk. Mr. Taylor was represented by Herbert McClammy, Esq., and was discharged. Odam was fined $5 and costs for disorderly conduct. He was represented by William J. Bellamy, Esq., who said that disposition of the case was satisfactory.

Captured Deserted Sailor Man.

Policeman Leon George early last night captured David Jones, colored ward-room steward of the Revenue Cutter Seminole, who appears to have deserted the ship shortly before she sailed yesterday afternoon for her annual overhauling at Baltimore. Capt. Quinan, commanding the ship, offered a reward of $15 for the man and he was bagged by Officer George within 12 hours. An effort was made to catch the cutter at Southport last night by telephone, but she was reported lying in the stream and the man will be taken down there and put on board the ship this morning. Jones was captured at the house of a colored woman on Eighth, between Grace and Chesnut streets. He owned up to being the man wanted.

Extending Navassa Wharves.

The Diamond Steamboat and Wrecking Company is engaged in materially enlarging the wharf facilities at the Nevassa guano factory up the river. An extension of 250 feet is being made to the present wharf and all of them are being widened so as to make the total width 40 feet. It will require several months to complete the job as piles are to be driven and other work of that character done.

Leave for the Fatherland.

Messrs. J. D. Dosher, C. F. VonKampen and W. A. Mahler will leave tonight for Baltimore whence they will sail on Wednesday at 2 P. M. for an extended visit to their fatherland in Germany. They will be away for most of the Summer. They are all highly esteemed citizens of Wilmington, who have many friends to wish them a pleasant voyage and a safe return.

MARINE HOSPITAL

THE CITY ENTERS A PROTEST

Aid of Senator Simmons Enlisted to Have The Action Revoked—Effort Through Chamber of Commerce—A Surprise Here.

Wilmington is preparing to resist most strenuously the closing of the Marine Hospital in this city, an order for which, effective July 1st, was received yesterday by Dr. Godfrey, the surgeon in charge, from the Department in Washington.

It will be remembered that during the Winter some such action was threatened in connection with other coast cities all the way down from Maine with the possible exception of Institutions at Baltimore, New York and other of the larger ports, and that strong protests were filed at Washington by several of the cities affected. Washington took action early in February through the Chamber of Commerce which passed a very strong resolution which was transmitted to our Representatives and Senators in Congress. The matter was thought to be closed until yesterday when the order from Surgeon General Wyman reached Dr. Godfrey asking him to arrange to close the hospital not later than June 30th, and to arrange for the care and treatment of sailors entitled to enter a hospital by private contract.

The matter was at once brought to the attention of the Chamber of Commerce by some one who had heard of the action and President J. A. Taylor immediately telegraphed Senator Simmons to see what could be done to get the order revoked. This was followed by a letter last night enclosing the resolution adopted by the Chamber of Commerce in February protesting against the action and making certain arguments in favor of the retention of the institution here. Mr. Taylor feels confident that Mr. Simmons will do all possible to get the order rescinded and has some hopes of success.

Pursuant to instructions from the Department, Dr. Godfrey has called for sealed proposals for the care of sick and disabled seamen and seamen suffering from contagious diseases, patients of the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service at Wilmington for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907. These bids will be received until noon Friday, June 15, 1906.

It is believed here that it will be impossible for the government to let this work by private contract and that is expected to exert a strong influence toward a retention of the hospital in this city. The James Walker Memorial Hospital is constantly crowded with its legitimate patients and besides being an institution supported in part by the city and county, it would be unlawful for the Board of Managers to enter into this service as it would clearly be a perversion of the public fund of the county and municipality, and would endanger the appropriation for that institution from the sources named. Besides it is not desirable and is against the rules of the hospital to receive into its wards persons affected with contagious diseases. Public sentiment would be strongly against any such arrangement being made with the James Walker Memorial Hospital and it is safe to say that no bid will be received from that source. It is believed that any other expedient would be unsatisfactory for the government.

It is pointed out that the hospital costs neither the city, the State, nor the government anything for its maintainance the cost of keeping it in operation coming solely from the tonnage tax, a revenue collected on the tonnage of vessels entering the port. The surplus of this tax, after the hospitals of the Marine Hospital Service have been maintained, goes, it is understood in the treasury, and it is to cut down hospital expenses to have a larger surplus from this source for the treasury that the order to close certain of the hospitals was given.

TO HOUSE POLICE HORSES

Contract Let for Stables in the City Hall Yard.

The Public Building Committee of the Board of Aldermen, Messrs. W. E. Yopp and J. A. Karr being present, met yesterday and awarded the contract for stables in the City Hall yard for the care of the horses to be used by the five mounted police. It will be a one-story, brick extension to the present brick building for housing the police patrol outfit. The cost of the anex will be $595 and in it will be provided seven stables, feed room, harness room and a room for the disinfectants used in the sanitary department. The size of the building will be 26x38 feet in size and work on the same will begin at once.

PYTHIANS TO GREENSBORO

The Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias of North Carolina, will assemble this evening in Greensboro, N. C., and continue in session for a greater part of the week. For several reasons it promises to be one of the most largely attended and enjoyable sessions held in the State for several years. Wilmington, as usual, sends a strong delegation and one that wields a heavy influence in the deliberations of that body. In the party from this city, most of whom left last night, were Supreme Master of Exchequer T. D. Meares, Past Chancellors W. J. Woodard, Wm. F. Robertson, Deputy Grand Chancellor James D. Nutt, Col. Walker Taylor, Chairman of the Grand Lodge Judiciary Committee, Representatives W. C. Smith, Stonewall lodge; F. V. Huggins, Clarendon Lodge; G. F. Seitter, Germania Lodge, and W. O. Page, Jefferson Lodge.

The Grand Lodge convenes first this evening in the Pythian Castle Hall in Greensboro and will adjourn from there to the opera house where a public reception will be given. A programme of music and other features of entertainment will be provided. The address of welcome will be C. C. McLean, Esq., of Greensboro, and the response by Whitehead Kluttz, Esq of Salisbury.

The past year has been a prosperous one in the history of the order in the State and the various reports to be submitted will show a fine growth in all departments.

FOUGHT AT MARKET HOUSE.

General Melee There Yesterday Afternoon—One Man Cut.

Four young men well known in the city—Hartsfield Crandall, Henyard Bordeaux, Jim Jordan and "Country John" Williams—engaged in a pitched battle yesterday afternoon between 5 and 6 o'clock, in the alley leading through the fish market on Front street. Crandall and Williams were arrested by Constable Savage and the other two were taken in custody by Capt. T. H. Johnson, the market house officer. Crandall was so badly cut that he had to be sent to the hospital for repairs. He charges Jim Jordan with having cut him and Jordan confesses that he made several rents in his anatomy, but said that he did it in self defence as Crandall was attempting to assault him with a brick. From all accounts bricks, knives and other weapons were used. "Country John" had a big knot about the size of a cocoanut on the side of his head while several others bore signs of the fray. Crandall was cut in the side, in the breast and in the arm, but none of the wounds was serious. He was discharged soon after his wounds were dressed at the hospital, having previously given bond to appear in Justice Furlong's court. The others also gave bond and those arrested by the police will probably be tried before the Mayor in the police court -today at noon.

White Youth Disappeared.

The police were asked yesterday to look out for Leggett Caddell, a 17-year- old white boy who left his home, 119 North Fourth street, Sunday morning, and has not since been heard of. He complained of being sick when he left home and his family fear that some harm has come to him. Later it was learned that he had left on the Angola Lumber Company's tug E. K. Bishop, bound for Long Creek, Pender county, but there is some uncertainty about the matter and the family will remain in much distress until something more definite is learned.

Steamer Putney Bridge In Port.

The British steamer Putney Bridge, 2,147 tons, Capt. Robinson which arrived several days ago at the quarantine station from Rio Janeiro, has arrived up and taken a berth at the Champion Compress for cargo of cotton. The British steamer Manchester Merchant now loading there will probably clear to-day.

Back to the Farm.

Upon advices from his father, J. C. Winn, a respectable colored man of Mount Olive, Roscoe Winn, a 17-year-old boy, was arrested here yesterday by Officer E. R. Chadwick. He had run away from home, and his father came down on the morning train for him yesterday and took him back home.

Lawn Party Postponed.

The lawn party which was to have been given this afternoon and tonight at the residence of Col. A. M. Waddell by the Piano Club, has been postponed on account of the weather. The date to which the affair has been postponed will be announced later.

Proposals are invited for repairs and alterations on the Star Building. Details furnished on application at the Star office. 3t

ROW OVER SCHEDULE

Southern Ignores Order of Corporation Commission as to Trains Out of Raleigh

AN INJUNCTION SERVED.

Interesting Complications Growing Out of Complaints at the State Capital—Fight Led By News and Observer—Gov. Glenn.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 11.—The Southern Railway Company ignores the order issued by the Corporation Commission Saturday night restraining the railroad company from putting into effect their new schedule for Train No. 111, Goldsboro to Greensboro, so that the train will arrive here at 11:45 and leave at 11:59 for Greensboro instead of waiting over here until 1:40 A. M. Despite the restraining order the train left last night on the new schedule and the Southern authorities declare that the new schedule will be maintained against all opposition. They make the plea of the necessity of maintaining Interstate connections that take authority in the case out of the jurisdiction of the North Carolina Corporation Commission. Chairman McNeill, of the Commission, said this morning that they have as yet no official knowledge of the violation of the order of the commission by the Southern and that they have until to-morrow to file their answer to the complaint against the change of the schedule. The fight against the new schedule is being made by the morning newspaper here as it would make it impossible for the paper to get out a first edition to circulate in the western part of the State as heretofore.

A Later Development.

Raleigh, N. C., June 11.—As the members of the North Carolina Corporation Commission were leaving their office this evening after six o'clock deputy United States Marshal J. T. Sharp served on them a temporary injunction secured by the Southern Railway Company from Judge Thomas R. Purnell, of the United States Court here, restraining the commission and any other parties concerned from suing the Southern for penalty in connection with the Southern's refusal to obey the order of the Commission to not change the schedule of train No. 111 at Raleigh so it would pass on to Greensboro at 11:59 P. M., instead of waiting here until 1:40 A. M. as in the past and also enjoining the Commission against interfering at all with this schedule on the ground that all branches of the Southern are parts of a single system engaged in Interstate mail and passenger service. The Commission is directed to appear before Judge Purnell June 21st and show cause why the temporary injunction should not be made permanent.

It is specified that the injunction is not to operate in any way against any regular proceeding pending before the Commission and the Southern declares its purpose to file formal answer with the Commission to-morrow to the complaints that have been filed with the commission against the change of the schedule.

The Southern declares that the records show connection at Raleigh by their train with northbound Seaboard 1:20 A. M., which it is sought through the Corporation Commission to force the Southern to maintain was actually made only six times during April and May and that it is of far more importance to operate on a new schedule and connect with Southern train No. 39 at Greensboro 4:12 A. M. for Salisbury, Asheville, Spartanburg, S. C., Charlotte and Atlanta than to attempt to make the Seaboard connection at Raleigh, the failure here being due to the operation of unweildly consolidated trains from Hamlet and Norlina by the Seaboard.

Governor Glenn was again too unwell to-day to be in his office and will probably not be able to attend to any official business for the next several days.

Disorderly Colored Women.

In Justice Furlong's court yesterday five colored women, inmates of a house at Twelfth and Chesnut streets, were fined $5 and costs each for disorderly conduct Saturday afternoon. The fines and costs amounting to nearly $50 were paid.

Alderman Moore Improving.

The many friends of Alderman P. Q. Moore will be delighted to know that he continues to improve and that his condition yesterday gave every hope for his recovery. Unless something unforseen develops now, Mr. Moore is out of danger. He is doing as well as anyone could expect.

WORLD WATCHING COTTON PROSPECTS.

The Boston Commercial Bulletin, a leading trades and statistical paper, reminds us that official statistics of the coming cotton crop of the United States are being scanned with even more than usual interest, both here and throughout the leading cotton marts and cotton manufacturing centres of the world.

The Commercial Bulletin says:

"This is due to two principal reasons—the short crop and the high prices of the cotton season, now drawing to a close. The commercial crop for 1905-6 may now be approximately put in the vicinity of ten and three-quarters million bales, while for the previous season it was about three millions larger, being the greatest production on record. During the past season the reduced crop and the continued prosperity and enlarged operations of the mills have caused a diminution in the surplus of raw cotton held by the mills and has imparted a very firm undertone to the general cotton market."

Our Boston contemporary remarks that the effect of the increasing call for American cotton to supply the rapidly growing spindleage of the world is manifested in the drift of prices. For quite a number of years previous to the crop year of 1902-3 it may be stated roughly that prices varied between six and ten cents with sudden and great advances quite unusual. For the season of 1902-3 the extremes were 8.30c and 13.50c; for 1903-4 they were 1.60c and 17.25c; and in 1904-5 they were 7c and 11.25c. The extremes thus far in the season of 1905-6 are 9.95c and 12.60c., with an average probably in the vicinity of 11c.

It accepts the government crop report as fairly accurate and says:

"On Monday the Government issued its first cotton report of importance for the season of 1906-7. There had been several private estimates of acreage previously given out, but this one had been awaited as more thorough, detailed and authentic. The report gives the total area planted to be 28,686,000 acres, an increase of about 1,686,00 acres or 6.2 per cent., as compared with the total estimated acreage planted last year. The average condition of the growing crop is put at 84.6, as compared with 77.2 and 83 at the corresponding dates in 1905 and 1904, respectively, and a ten-year average of 84.9.

"These increased acreage figures are what might have naturally been expected. The exceedingly rmunerative prices realized by the Southern farmers for several seasons past have stimulated them to enlarge their planting operations to a very considerable degree. If a correspondingly increased crop follows it is not likely that prices will decline to such an extent as to be unsatisfactory or unremunerative. The holding power of the Southern farmers has been very much strengthened by the their recent years of prosperity, and moreover the enlargd requirements of the mills are easily to be seen."

The Commercial Bulletin thinks the outlook for production and manufacturing is good for the reason that our cotton mills, both North and South, are having their capacity increased, and new mills are springing up here and there. The principal difficulty just now in running the mills in full or over time consists in the scarcity of help, and this is true in both sections of the country. The English mills are full of orders, and have been great buyers of American cotton. Over 500,000 additional spindles have been started on American cotton within the last few months in Lancashire, and over 600,000 spindles have got partly at work, while mills of 2,400,000 spindle capacity are being built to spin the same class of cotton.

Under all the circumstances let the cotton growers hold a stiff upper lip, is one more injunction which the Star wishes to emphasize. Things seem to be coming the cotton growers' way when the manufacturers are congratulating themselves that they can get cotton for 11 cents.

LACK OF LABOR IN THE SOUTH.

The probability is that al the agitation going on to secure immigration for the South will have good results, even if the outcome will not be entirely satisfactory. As the Star has heretofore remarked the South wants and needs a desirable class of immigrants but the lack of labor here is not so serious that this section of the country is willing to take all comers. The efforts of the Southern Immigration Commission to turn the tide of immigrants this way causes the New York Commercial Bulletin to make these observations on the subject:

"In spite of the flood of immigration which continues to pour into this country, to the alarm of some sensitive people in the North, the South is still suffering for lack of sufficient labor to develop her agricultural resources and build up industries for which she has every natural advantage. With the opening of each new season this lack is more keenly felt, and the press of that section is waking up to the importance of doing something to attract immigration, which keeps flowing in at Northern ports and spreading into the West with only driblets going South. There are plans for inducing Southern immigration by means of diverting some of the stream that enters at this port and arranging with steamship companies to bring more of it directly to Southern ports.

"Encouraging or inducing immigrations in all legitimate ways is well enough, but what is most needed is attraction for it. It will go where it is attracted by conditions that give promise of congenial employment, comfortable livelihood and the advantages of free and prosperous communities. The South in time past has not attracted immigrants. It has even been disposed to repel them until recently, and the effect is not to be overcome at once. A natural source of immigration to the South would be the crowded parts of the Northern States, and surplus population from Europe would naturally filter from the North to the South if there was advantage in the change. But Northern farm or shop and factory laborers have shown little disposition to go South, perferring even to cross the border into Canada, where they become aliens.

"It is for the Southern people to inquire somewhat into the cause of this, as well as to spread information regarding the advantages, opportunities and what are claimed to be the attractions of their section. Will people going to farms and mills there find better or even as good wages as in the North? Will they find as comfortable conditions of labor? Will the opportunities for education and the amenities of domestic and social life be found as satisfactory? Will the political atmosphere be as congenial and the protection of the law be as effective? Tese are matters to be considered in connection with attracting immigrants either from other parts of the country or from abroad."

Immigration Commissioner Watchorn, in charge of the Ellis Island immigration station, at New York, made pretty much the same remarks last week when members of the Southern Immigration Commission visited the island. We recognize a good deal of truth in what is said, but we believe the South is getting in a position to offer many of the advantages set up as prerequisite for securing immigrants. It has long been our conviction that cheap labor (negro labor, if you please) has been the greatest deterrent of immigration to the South. People are not coming where they have to compete with that class of labor in either price or mode of living. For that reason the Star has advocated better prices for cotton that the farmers can pay better prices for labor as well as reap the benefit of their own industry. We have no doubt negro labor would be better if it were better paid, but with low prices for cotton and low prices for labor we will continue to have the one great obstacle to the incoming of new people. The conditions, however, are vastly improved, and outside of labor in the cotton fields there are great opportunities in the South for settlers, especially those who come to buy lands and build homes. Opportunities are expanding rapidly and we are satisfied that there are better oportunities right here now than can be found in any part of America, considering the prospects in all lines of endeavor.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The decision of the New York Court of Appeals holding electric light companies responsible for defective insulation of their wires where fire losses result therefrom, is of very great importance both to the electric concerns and the insurance companies of the country. The result must be to secure the utmost care on the part of the lighting companies in the work of laying and insulating their wires. The particulars in relation to their test case, in which the Edison company and many leading insurance companies were involved in New York, are given on the financial page of to-day's Times.—Hartford Times.

—It is absurd to say that the packers cannot afford to pay the salaries of the inspectors. They control absolutely the provision business and make the prices for live cattle and for dead meats. They can add the most of inspection to their selling prices and get the money back from their customers. In the end the public is going to pay for the inspection whether the salaries come directly from the treasury or from the packers. It has been calculated that eight cents a head would meet the cost of the additional inspection that is needed, and it wouldn't bother the packers much to get eight cents more for each carcass that they put into the trade.—Philadelphia-Record.

—Mr. Roosevelt deliberately stole the trust-busting plank of the last Democratic platform. He appropriated the rate regulation issue, His muck rake has brought up enough effluvious material to satisfy the most inquisitive. He has antagonized the very elements which the campaign spellbinders love to call "the enemies of the people." There only remained the tariff issue. Having refrained from laying hands on that, the Democrats should nurse it for all there is in it. They will be comforted to learn that Mr. Shaw believes that the President does not care to use it in his business. Mr. Shaw's announcement of Mr. Roosevelt's renunciation may contain the germ of a challenge. He may have intended it as a "dare."—Birmingham Press.

—It was only that the German Government lacked the nerve to carry out its threats, that another large item in our foreign trade was not annihilated. It may be that Germany will experience a revival of courage later, upon ascertaining that the United States proposes to continue its policy of exclusion as before, and then we shall have to depend very largely upon England for a European market. The English are already considering the question of protection, and while we now believe that she is unalterably wedded to the idol of free trade, her notions with respect to that might change as suddenly as did those of Canada in the matte rof reciprocity, a boom which she asserts that she will not now accept from us, even on a golden platter. The stand-patters will be sorry when too late.—Rochester Herald.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.

I entered the Keeley Institute in 1893 to be treated for the drink habit. I was an habitual drinker. After remaining a few weeks I was completely cured, and, although I have been in a saloon ever since, I have not taken a drink, nor have I had any desire to do so whatever. I will always feel grateful to the Keeley Institute at Greensboro, N. C., for what it has done for me. I cannot conceive of a severer test of the efficacy of the Keeley Treatment than my case has put it to. I hope that my experience as given above will be of benefit to some weak brother. Your treatment accomplishes all that it claims, and I know that it cures.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—The Sidney Mills at Graham are closed while undergoing extensive improvements. A spining mill is being added and a new dye house and boiler room are being built.

—The Republican party of the 10th Congressional district is called to meet in Asheville at 11 A. M., Saturday, July 7, 1906, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the 60th Congress.

—The Republican county convention of Alexander county on Saturday instructed the delegates to the Eighth Congressional District convention to support Congressman E. Spencer Blackburn for renomination.

—The new A. & N. C. passenger depot at Kinston has been completed and as soon as it is accepted by the company will be opened to the public. It is a marked improvement over the old one in many respects.

—Charlotte Observer, June 11: The Charlotte Brick Company is now using 35 immigrants at its plant on the Catawba river. The last party of the foreigners, 16 young Germans arrived in the city yesterday morning and Mr. S. S. McNinch, owner of the plant, sent them out at once. Mr. McNinch has been well pleased with the Germans among the first immigrants he employed and thinks that all of them will make good.

—Charlotte Observer, June 11: Mr. M. P. Lipe, the young Mecklenburger who is one of the assistants of Mr. G. A. Lowry, the inventor, has received word that the Lowry cotton chopper intended for practical tests in this section will arrive in the city tomorrow. Mr. Lipe will give a public exhibition of the work of the chopper as soon after the machine arrives and he can secure a field of cotton that has not been worked.

—Chapel Hill News: Mr A. W. Norwood, a good citizen of Chatham, was in town on business Saturday. He told a reporter of a plucky adventure of one of his daughters, Miss Annie, aged 16 years, hiving a swarm of bees during his absence from home one day last week. She made a bee gum and placed the pesky little things in it without being stung. Miss Annie is one girl in a thousand who would undertake to hive a swarm of bees.

—In a rock quarry at Ruffin, near Concord, Sploman Furr, a white man 30 years of age, was terribly injured while attempting to set off several pieces of explosives. One piece exploded in his hand and so badly injured it that amputation was necessary. Several other pieces lying on the ground, exploded, following the first explosion, and these also did injury to the man. His recovery depends on the extent of the internal injuries.

—Wadesboro special, June 10: A report reached the city from Richmond county late yesterday afternoon to the effect that Mr. J. W. Dunn, better known as Bud Dunn, was shot and killed last night on the public road between Stanback's bridge and Powelton. No particulars of the affair can be learned, but it is said that his brother was the last man seen with him. The dead man was about 35 years of age, the son of Mr. Billy Dunn, and leaves a wife and three children.

—Thomas A. Edison, the noted inventor, who arrived in Asheville Saturday after exploring the mountains of western North Carolina in search of cobalt deposits, said to a press representative: "If cobalt is as thick and rich in North Carolina as I believe it to be, I will reduce the weight of storage batteries in automobiles 50 per cent., and the cost of electric traffic in the cities 55 per cent. Some of the richest beds of cobalt I have ever found lie in western North Carolina. There is a large quantity of it here and my discovery means a revolution in the electrical work."

—Washington special, June 9: The esteem in which Senator Overman, of North Carolina, is held by his Democratic colleagues is shown in his assignment to the steering committee of the minority party in the upper house. Changes had to be made in this committee as a result of the death of Senator Gorman. The vacancy was filled by the selection of Senator Overman. Senator Gorman's death also necessitated a number of shifts in Senate committees. Mr. Overman secured a place on the public building committee, succeeding Mr. Simmons, who is transferred to the Committee on Commerce.

—Sam Lipe, of Biltmore, Asheville, was shot through the right thigh by his son, Edward Lipe, Friday night shortly after 12 o'clock and seriously injured. The father was taken for a burglar by the son and, by virtue of this mistake, came near losing his life. The wound will not prove fatal.

—Mrs. M. Pearson died at Kinston Sunday morning about 3 o'clock as the result of injuries sustained Thursday evening. The horse attached to a buggy in which she was riding became frightened at a hat box which her husband was about to place in the buggy and ran away, throwing Mrs. Pearson on the pavement. Her skull was fractured and she was injured internally.

—Charlotte Observer, June 11: Nat Crump, the negro who shot Mr. H. Clay Grubb from ambush and was captured, tried, convicted, sentenced to the State penitentiary and escaped, is going towards the mountains. He was seen as far west as Newton one night last week, beating his way on a passenger train. He carried two large pistols and told some colored friends that he never expected to return to prison unless it was to be dressed for burial. Crump is a desperate negro and will fight to the last ditch before he will be taken. There is a reward of $500 offered for his arrest. The officers of Catawba, Caldwell, Burke, McDowell and Buncombe counties are looking out for him."

—The Democratic county convention of Wayne county met in Goldsboro on Saturday and elected delegates to the State, Congressional and Judicial conventions. Wayne sends 42 delegates to the Congressional and judicial conventions, and 13 delegates to the State convention. A resolution was introduced by Col. W. T. Dortch instructing the delegation to the Congressional convention which meets in Goldsboro on June 26th to cast the entire 42 votes for the Hon. Geo. E. Hood, for oCngress. In addition to that vote, Mayor Hood will get about a half dozen votes outside of Goldsboro, which will be insufficient to secure the nomination, as Congressman Thomas has enough counties pledged to him to secure his renomination.

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS

Do Not Endanger Life When a Wilmington Citizen Shows You the Cure.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one, of the symptons of kidney disease, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease sets in. Read this Wilmington testimony:

B. R. King, the well-known policeman, of Wilmington, residing at 706 Wooster streets, says: "I had terrible pain in my back which worked around to my side and in my stomach, so bad at times that it laid me up. I used internal medicines and they did not help me. I put on plasters and rubbed with liniment, and none of them helped me at all. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills recommended I got a box of them at Bellamy's drug stone. The next day after commencing to use them I noticed relief. Since using two boxes of them I have not had an ache or a pain in my back. It is with pleasure that I add my name to those endorsing the claims made for this remedy."

HIS TROUBLE TO THE POLICE.

Queer Case That Came Under Observation of Police Yesterday.

A seventeen-year-old white youth, half-clad and foot sore from a long journey, ignorant as to his true name and almost half-witted, evidently from the lack of opportunity to go about as other boys, drifted under the notice of the police Sunday. The only name he knew of himself was "Lee" and as to his parentage he knew nothing. Ever since he could remember, he said, he had been in the keeping of a man named Royall, living in the country some distance from Mount Olive and from whom he ran away and walked to Wilmington last week. He said that ill treatment caused him to run away and that the wanted some work to do. He first made his appearance at the railroad depot Saturday night and was allowed to sleep there that night. Sunday morning Mr. Cumber, the night wachman at the road, gave him enough clothes to make him presentable and turned him over to officer Joe Lane, who showed him to the City Hall. There Sergeant B. R. King became interested in his case and took him to his home where he is being provided for until Mr. King can get him work. The boy says that he never knew his parents' names and during his lifetime had never seen a train more than once or twice. They called him "Fiddler Bill" sometimes, he said, but that appeared the extent of his knowledge about himself.

MR. W. R. FREEMAN DEAD.

Esteemed Citizen of Lumberton—Early Morning Fire.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., June 10.—Mr. W. R. Freeman, one of the oldest and most esteemed citizens of this section, died here this morning at 6 o'clock, in the 75th year of his age. He had been in poor health for several months but was only confined to his room two days. Mr. Freeman had spent his entire life in this immediate section where he was held in the highest esteem by everyone. He served throughout the Civil War, a faithful soldier to the end.

This morning at 1:30 o'clock the alarm of fire was sounded and it was soon found that the residence of Mrs. Caroline Jones was on fire. The Fire Department was soon on the scene and by hard and faithful work saved the dwelling. The kitchen and dining room were damaged to the extent of $250 or $300, but the loss is covered by insurance. The work of the firemen is said to have been the best ever seen here.

STORM IN ROBESON COUNTY.

Gin House Burned By Lightning—Crops Were Damaged.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C. June 9.—During a thunderstorm in the Alfordsville section yesterday afternoon the cotton gin belonging to A. L. & W. F. Bullock was fired by lightning and entirely consumed.

The Allenton section was also visited by a severe wind and rain storm. It is said that an empty freight car was driven off the side track by the force of the wind. Crops were badly damaged and many trees and fences blown down. A large barn about one mile from Allenton was completely demolished.

The Western Union has just opened offices at the Seashore and Tarrymoore hotels, on Wrightsville Beach, with a competent man in charge of each. A new feature this year will be a low rate to people in the city who may desire to send messages to the beach. The rate is 15 cents for every 10 words or less and one cent for each word in addition thereto. Messages may be filed in the same manner as those for regular transmission.

No Police Court Yesterday.

Mayor Waddell was suffering from a slight attack of bronchitis yesterday and was unable to be out, consequently the few cases on the police court docket were continued until to-day. Quite all the defendants were out on bond and the continuance of the cases worked no hardship upon them.

YELLOW JACK AT NEW ORLEANS

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New Orleans, June 11.—The fact that three cases of yellow fever have been quarantined for past two days at Ship Island, a government quarantine station in the Gulf of Mexico, about midway between the mouth of the Mississippi river and Mobile, Ala., was made public to-day by Dr. C. H. Iron, president of the Louisiana State Board of Health.

The announcement of the yellow fever cases was the result of a discussion between Dr. Iron and Health Officer Hunter, of Mississippi, over the fact that they had not been notified immediately of the fever's presence The cases came from Colon and were taken off the steamer Whiteball which was bound for Gulfport, Miss.

Ship Island is a short distance south of the Mississippi coast and in charge of United States Marine Hospital officers, who immediately notified Surgeon General Wyman of the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital service. Dr. Iron commented upon the circumstances under which this report was made.

He announced that quarantine orders have been issued against Ceiba, Monduras, at which port it is reported that refugees are gathering to escape yellow fever, which is said to be breaking at several points in Honduras. He also said that he has received reports that there is yellow fever in Havana.

MORMON SMOOT TO BE EXPELLED

been for several years past, so exercised by the said First Presidency and Twelve Apostles as to encourage the practice of polygamy and polygamous cohabitation in the State of Utah and elsewhere, contrary to the constitution and laws of the State of Utah and the law of the land; that the said first presidency and twelve apostles do now control and for a long time past have controlled, the political affairs of the State of Utah, and have thus brought about in said State a union of church and state, contrary to the constitution of the United States and that said Reed Smoot comes here, not as the accredited representative of the State of Utah in the Senate of the United States but as the choice of the hierarchy which controls the church and has usurped the functions of the State in said State of Utah."

The majority reports characterizes "as wholly untenable" the position that because Smoot himself does not practice polygamy and there is no evidence to show that he has personally and individually encouraged the practice in others, he ought not to be condemned because of the acts of his associates. It is charged "that Smoot is an inseparable part of the government body of the Mormon church—the First Presidency and Twelve Apostles—and those who compose that organization. form an unit and entirety and whatever is done by that organization is the act of each and every member thereof, and whatever policy is adopted and pursued by the body which controls the Mormon church, Mr. Smoot must be held to be responsible for as a member of that body."

The report declares that Smoot knew the polygamous practices of President Smith and other church officials he has sustained by his vote as an apostle, and at no time uttered a word of protest against the conduct of his associates, but on the contrary has sustained them by his silence.

In the judgment of the committee," the report says, "Mr. Smoot is no more entitled to a seat in the Senate than he would be if he were associating in polygamous cohabitation or a plurality of wives."

BUTLER'S INDIAN BILL CRITICISED

States, Congress was under no especial obligation to open up the question, especially as the claim was made on the part of individuals and not for the tribe as a whole.

Senator Simmons took exceptions to the provision looking to the settlement of the claim of $150,000, of former United States Senator Marion Butler and Josiah M. Vale, in connection with the opening of the Colville Indian Reservation in the State of Washington. He expressed the opinion that the sum was exorbitant and said that only a part of the claim should be paid. Mr. Simmons took the position that no legal service had been rendered. He therefore, concluded that the claim was for lobbying alone and said Congress should place its seal of condemnation on that immoral and illegal practice—a practice which he thought should be brought to the attention of district attorneys.

Senator Spooner attacked the Brown amendment saying that "it is vicious legislation."

Senator Clay spoke of the Butler-Vale claim contending that the Senate amendment has the effect of reviving a claim that had expired four years ago.

Senator LaFollette returned to his attack on the conference amendment concerning the enrollment of the Choctaw Indians, which he said, would do an injustice to 2,000 persons. He cited a case in which one firm of lawyers in Indian Teritory had been paid $750,000 for services to the Indians.

"Another case in which the Cornfield Lawyer failed to attend to business," remarked Senator Spooner, glancing misclevously at Senator Tillman who replied: "The Cornfield Lawyer can't attend to all the stealing; if he did he would never sleep."

Early in the day the Senate passed a diplomatic appropriation bill, carrying $3,154,594, and the oath of office was administered to William Pinkney Whyte as successor of the late Senator Gorman, of Maryland.

There was a brief discussion of Senator Tillman's resolution providing for an investigation among other things, of the affairs of the Chicago National Bank. Senator Aldrich, chairman of the Committee on Finance, promised that the resolution shall be taken up tomorrow by that committee.

PLUCKY GIRL SAVES HONOR

(Charlotte Observer.)

Selma, June 10.—Last night about 11:30 o'clock Miss Pearl Jones, the telephone operator at this place, shot and fatally wounded Bud Richardson, a negro, who, by his own confession, had premeditated an assault upon her.

The telephone office is located in a narrow room between a large store and the bank fronting on Main street. In the rear of the office, enclosed by a high board wall, is a small back lot private to the operators. This lot is entered through a screen door in the rear of the office and there is also a door through the wall in the rear of the lot which is kept fastened by a hook on the inside. About two weeks ago a negro was caught climbing over this high wall and scared away by one of the operators. Three nights afterwards, as one of the young ladies stepped into the back lot from the office, she was confronted by a negro man. This time there happened to be a young man in the operating room who ran to her rescue, only to see the negro's back and give a fruitless chase.

Hearing of this second attempt the young men of the town decided to guard the office at night, which they did regularly, taking turns, until last night, the two men assigned to this duty were sitting in front of the drug store awaiting for the stores to close so they could take their positions, when at 11 o'clock they heard a pistol shot, followed by four more in quick succession. These two, with the chief of police, ran to the office, when they found the young lady with the pistol in her hand. She told them she started out into the back lot and some one started toward her, then she jumped back into the office, grabbed the pistol and fired once. By the aid of that fire she could plainly see some one crouched in the corner. Then she aimed at him and fired the other shots as he went out the door and thought she hit him with the last one.

The crowd that had gathered by this time began the search for the negro, when some distance away they saw a negro boy coming on the run toward the drug store. When he was halted he said he was going after the doctor for his brother, who had just been shot. Not waiting for the doctor they made him lead them back to where the boy lived. They found him at home lying on the bed groaning and praying. He confessed the whole affair then and there before the doctor came.

The doctor's examination showed that the ball went through his left arm and into his body between the third and fourth ribs. The bullet was probed for, but could not be located. The wound was bleeding and he was breathing through the hole. The doctor says he will not live, but eighteen hours later he is still living and is conscious. Three of this negro's associates were arrested and held in the lockup until this afternoon.

At 4 o'clock they were all given a preliminary hearing before a magistrate, resulting in two of them being released and two held. At the trial the wounded negro, realizing his condition, said he was ready to make a statement, which he did in the form of an affidavit as follows:

"North Carolina, Johnston county: Bud Richardson, being sworn, says: Jim Merritt and I went into the back lot of the telephone company's office Saturday night, June 9th, for the purpose of committing rape on Misses Pearl Jones and Jessie Hunt, who were night operators for the company. I got shot and Jim told me he had been there twice before for the same purpose, but could not succeed by himself. No one else was with us.

(Signed) "BUD RICHARDSON."

Jim Merritt emphatically denied having been with the negro at all that night, but said he went home at 10:25 with another negro. Haze Richardson, who took the stand and corroborated Jim. Henry Barrow, a reliable white man, swore he was passing along the street back of the telephone office, at 10:45 and saw Bud Richardson and Jim Merritt standing in an alley looking directly toward the rear of the office, and at 11 o'clock, when he was almost home, he heard the five pistol shots. Maggie Barefoot, who lives in the nearest house to Richardson, swears she saw two men pass her house shortly after 11, one half-carrying the other. Then one ran back to the road and pretty soon another man ran towards town.

On this evidence Jim Merritt was bound to court along with Richardson. There were two or three hundred white men at the trial and excitement was running high, until they knew the result of the hearing, and Jim Merritt was hurried off to jail. At this hour, 8 o'clock, things are quiet and there is very little fear of a lynching.

The people of Selma are raising a fund to be used in buying a gold mounted pistol and a gold medal for Miss Jones.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, June 11.—The cotton market was generally steady during to-day's session and closed steady at a net advance of 4 to 5 points. Sales for the day were estimated at 250,000 bales.

The opening was steady at a net advance of 1 to 3 points in response to higher cables than expected. Weather accounts were good from all points except South Texas where no rain has yet fallen or is in sight for the immediate future and the market eased off a point or two on one or two positions immediately after the call. It quickly firmed up, however, on the strength of July in New Orleans. Various rumors were circulating here as to the meaning of the July firmness and the market advanced to a net ain of 10 to 13 points during the middle season. Realizing at the advance caused a partial reaction in the afternoon but the market was steadied before the close by the appearance of an explanation from the Department of Agriculture concerning the recent acreage estimate which was published about two minutes before the end of the season. The close was about 5 to 6 points off from the best on the active months. Southern spot markets were unchanged to 1-8c. higher.

Receipts at the ports to-day, 4,242 bales against 10,078 last week and 12,192 last year. For the week 40,000 bales against 55,170 last week and 80,376 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans, 986 bales against 3,595 last year and at Houston 455 bales against 3,896 last year.

LAW WITH TEETH FOR PACKERS

President Roosevelt Yesterday Had Conference With Congressmen

INSPECTION BILL TALK

Agreed That Some Sort of Strong Measure is Necessary

ROOSEVELT IS DETERMINED

Positive Denial Made That President Has Shown Signs of Compromising—House Committee Considered Bill.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, June 11.—The House Committee on agriculture was locked in its room with the Beveridge beef inspection amendment for six hours today. When the session ended at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon. Members said they had agreed to observe strict secrecy regarding what had been done. There was a general statement, however, that "nothing had ben done finally." The Beveridge amendment was taken as the basis of action and the greater part of it was gone over tentatively. It is understood the committee found itself generally in favor of striking from the Beveridge amendment the requirement that the labels on the cans containing prepared meat products shall bear the date of manufacture.

The problem of federal jurisdiction to enforce sanitary regulations on which the question of constitutionality was raised, has a tentative solution at least in a proposition to have all labels for every character of meat product, canned and otherwise issued by the Secretary and attached to the product only after such sanitary regulations as the Secretary shall prescribe have been complied with and approved given by government inspectors. These government labels are to then be the passport of meat products into interstate and foreign trade and common carriers are to be forbidden to accept for shipment consignments of goods without official government labels. This provision, like all others, is only in the tentative stage.

The question of who shall bear the cost of the inspection has not yet been reached in the consideration of the amendment. Several modifications are said to have been recommended regarding the discretionary authority to be given the Secretary under the proposed new law.

The consideration of the proposed meat inspection law occupied some time today at the White House. The President consulted with several members of Congress regarding the question. Representative Henry, of Connecticut, one of the members of the Agricultural Committee talked to the President but at the conclusion of his conference he said he could not go into details concerning the situation.

"A satisfactory meat inspection law will be enacted," said Mr. Henry. "It will be a law which will have teeth, too. It will be along the lines of proposed amendment of Senator Beveridge to the agricultural appropriation bill but there may be some modification of the proposition."

Speakker Cannon and Senator Hopkins, of Illinois, also discussed the subject of meat inspection with the President.

As to meat inspection said the Speaker, I haven't talked five minutes with the members of the agricultural committee about the matter. The committee in its wisdom, will report to the House such a measure as it shall deem just, and we, as the great body of the House, will pass upon the committees proposition. The House will pass an inspection measure that will be just and fair alike to the public, the packers, the stock raisers and the shippers.

Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, who drew the amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill concerning meat inspection, after a talk with the President, declared that the talk about the proposed amendment being unconstitutional was beside the real question. He said it had been drawn and re-drawn carefully several times and he thought there was no doubt of its constitutionality. He added that, if the government were required to pay the cost of inspection it simply would mean the deafeat of the object of the measure. He also added that the report the President had agreed to a compromise on the measure was absolutely without foundation.

ADDICKS' DEFEAT FOR U. S. SENATE

The Wiley Aspirant From Delaware State Goes Down Before Col. Dupont

THE VOTE WAS DECISIVE

Wilmington Man Secured Majority of Republican Votes in Legislative Caucus at Dover Last Night Democrats Criticise.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Dover, Del., June 11.—Colonel Henry A. Dupont, of Wilmington, tonight defeated J. Edward Addicks in the contest for the vacant seat from Delaware in the United States Senate. Mr. Dupont was selected to fill the vacancy by a caucus of the Republican members of the Legislature which was in session several hours. The action of the caucus ends a contest that has continued for eleven years during which time Addicks was the candidate of the Union Republicans for the United States Senator. The Legislature will meet tomorrow in special sesison and each house will take a separate vote for United States Senator and the two houses will meet jointly on Wednesday to verify the vote.

There was a full attendance of members of both wings of the Republicans at the caucus tonight. There was a long discussion and when the vote was finally taken it stood: Dupont, 20; Addicks, 10; H. H. Ward, 1. Following the announcement of the vote Senator Connor, an Addicks supporter, made a motion that Dupont's selection be made unanimous which was adopted.

The Democratic members of the legislature have criticised Governor Lee for calling an extra sesison of the Legislature to elect a Senator and they have declared they will take no part in the voting.

WM. J. BRYAN IS SURPRISED

Distinguished Democrat Arrived in Berlin and Got First News That State Conventions Are Endorsing Him.

IT IS TOO EARLY TO TALK ABOUT IT

SO ABSORBED IN HIS TRAVELS THAT HE HAD NOT SEEN IN PAPERS ABOUT ASTONISHING REVIVAL OF HIS NAME FOR THE PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION—DEFINES DIFFERENCE BETWEEN DEMOCRACY AND SOCIALISM—HOME AUG. 29TH

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Berlin, June 11.—"This is too sudden," said William J. Bryan with a laugh when he was told today of the adoption by recent State Democratic Conventions of resolutions favoring his nomination for the Presidency of the United States in 1908. "This is the first announcement of this news to me," Mr. Bryan continued. "I have been off the main caravan route for some time and have been absorbed in what I have been seeing and doing."

Mr. Bryan had been moving so rapidly since he left Vienna on Friday that letters and telegrams for him did not reach him until today. As to the possibility of his nomination he had little to say, declaring it is too early to speak of that question, but taking up the subject of the political requirements of the day he said:

"Before leaving home I tried to distinguish between Democracy and what can properly be called Socialism. Democracy recognizes competition as legitimate and tries to protect the competitive principle from attack. Socialism sees competition as an evil to be eliminated by public ownership and operation of all means of production and distribution. While this distinction between Democracy and Socialism sould not be overlooked, the Democratic platform must be one of progress and reform and not merely of opposition to Republican policies or Socialistic ideas. In our fight for the absolute elimination of private monolies and for the regulation of corporations in general it is necessary that the party shall be free from any suspicion of alliance with the corporate interests that have been dominating American politics. To this end campaign contributions must be limited to those who have the public interest to advance. I trust that public sentiment will require all parties to keep their books open so that hereafter no party will be under private obligations to sield corporate offenders."

Alluding to conditions in the meat inquiry, Mr. Bryan said:

"The beef trust is not different in character and methods from other trusts. The inevitable tendency of a private monopoly is to increase the price of a product and to lower its quality. Why should any one expect anything else from a trust than the lowering of quality when a monopoly is established. Observe, I have used the words private monopoly, not public. In a private monopoly a private interest is set up against those of the whole people. Quite a different principle comes into operation when the interest of all is alone in view."

Herman Ridder, of the New York Staas Zeitung, and Mr. Bryan had a talk to-day on the political situation in the United States. Mr. Bryan will leave here for St. Petersburg tomorrow and from there will visit Sweden and Norway. He will arrive in London early in July where he will deliver a Fourth of July address and will then visit France, Italy and Switzerland. He expects to sail on the steamship Princess Irene from Gibraltar on August 20 and to arrive in New York on August 29.

Wasington, June 11.—After nearly four hours spent in the consideration of legislation affecting the interests of the District of Columbia, the House today resumed consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill and after an hour and a half spent in its consideration, adjourned at 5:40 until noon tomorrow.

An amendment was adopted permitting the appointment of retired officers of the United States corps of engineers, U. S. A., as members of the International Waterways Commission as provided for in the River and Harbor Bill creating this commission. The House in committee of the whole refused to make an additional appropriation for marking the places where American soldiers fell and were temporarily interred in Cuba and China, on the ground that ti was bad precedent.

Washington, June 11.—During the consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill in the House today. Mr. Bartlett, of Georgia, called the attention of the House to the appropriation for the care of the Confederate mounds in Illinois which he said was a splendid example of the love and tenderness shown by the North to the South. He spoke of the death of sectional strife in the large horizon of a re-united country which he said was an earnest of the splendid days to come for the republic.

Curious Case of Young South Carolinian Appealed to President

INVEIGLED IN SERVICE

Was Told by Recruiting Officer It Would Aid His Studies

DIDN'T FIND NAVY RELIGIOUS

After Deserting He Entered Furman University and Was There Arrested and Put in Jail—Must Stand Trial.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Washington, June 11.—President Roosevelt heard today a curious story of desertion from the United States navy and an appeal on behalf of the culprit. The statement was made to the President by Senator Gallinger, of New Hampshire, on behalf of Senator Tillman, of South Carolina. Senator Gallinger was accompanied to the White House by Representative Johnson, of South Carolina.

A brief time ago J. Matthews Fortner, a mountain boy of Pickens county, South Carolina, became imbued with the idea of becoming a Baptist preacher. While in a state of exaltation he encountered a recruiting officer of the navy and told him of his ambition. The officer suggested that Fortner enlist in the navy and thereby obtain an all-round education that would be of advantage to him in his clerical calling. Fortner enlisted with the idea that the navy was particularly adapted to religiously inclined young men. He was sent aboard on the Lancaster in 1903. The young man inclined toward the ministry and deserted. He became a student at Furman University at Greenville, S. C. The police learned the history of his enlistment and arrested him. He is now in prison.

The President listened to the story with deep interest. He suggested that the young man would have to stand trial for desertion and then all the facts would be developed. He promised to take up the case after trial and ascertain what, if anything, could be done for Fortner in the way of leniency.

Majority of Committee Gives Strong Reasons Why Utah Senator is Not Entitled to His Seat—Smoot Simply Smiled.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, June 12.—The majority and minority reports of the committee on privileges and elections in the case of Senator Reed Smoot, of Utah, were today presented in the Senate, the former by Senator Burrows, declaring that Mr. Smoot is not entitled to his seat and the latter by Senator Foraker, taking the opposite view. At the same time Senator Bailey, who is a member of the committee stated that while he concurred in the views of the majority, that Mr. Smoot is not entitled to his seat, he was of the opinion that "Mr. Smoot could not be deprived of his seat under the constitution except by a resolution of expulsion."

Mr. Burrows gave notice that he would call up the case "at the earliest possible moment consistent with the public business" and Senator Foraker expressed his approval of this announcement.

Senator Smoot was present in the Senate chamber when the reports were presented. He smiled broadly when Senator Bailey made his statement. Under the plan suggested by the Texas Senator a vote of two-thirds would be necessary to vacate the seat of the Utah Senator.

The reasons for the action of the Senate committee on privileges and elections in declaring by a majority vote that Reed Smoot is not entitled to a seat in the Senate, as a Senator from Utah are stated in the report submitted to the Senate today by Chairman Burrows and signed by Senators Burrows, Dolliver, DuBois, Pettus, Overman and Frazier, to be as follows:

"That Mr. Smoot is one of a self-perpetuating body of men, known as the First Presidency and Twelve Apostles of the Church of Jesus Christ or Latter Day Saints, commonly known as the First Presidency and Twelve Apostles of the Mormon Church; that these men claim divine authority to control the members of said church in all things, temporal as well as spiritual; that this authority, is, and has

Treasurer Treat Delivers Address in Which He Suggests Plan to Relieve Banks in Time of Great Activity.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Atlanta, Ga., June 11.—The Florida and Georgia Bankers' Association met here today with an attendance of 300 financiers from both States, in their respective annual conventions. The Floridians are the guests of the Georgia Association. An address of welcome by John Temple Graves was responded to by W. A. Blount, of Pensacola, Florida, and L. C. Hayne, of Augusta. Charles H. Treat, treasurer of the United States, spoke on the relations of the national treasury to banks and bankers. The fact that the banks had been prohibited in 1878 from issuing bills of smal denominations, Mr. Treat said, has added to the increasing embarrassment in handling crops. The law of 1900 restricting banks from issuing bills of $5 denomination added to the embarrassment. The growth of business also tended to increase the demand for small denominations. To meet this demand, Mr. Treat recommends the issue of gold certificates in denominations of $5 and $10, and that the new certificates to the extent of $25,000,000 or $30,000,000 be used to retire the $5 silver certificates, leaving that amount to be issued in $2's and $5's against the treasury silver thus released. The banks themselves could supplement this measure of relief, Mr. Treat suggested, by issuing their full complement of silver certificates.

HENRY TUCKER IS ELECTROCUTED

HOPED HE'D BE FORGIVEN

President Roosevelt Had Been Appealed to But Wrote That Sentence Was Just One—Murder Was Baptized.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Boston Mass., June 12.—Charles L. Tucker was electrocuted at 12.12 this (Tuesday) morning for the murder of Mabel Page at Weston, March 31, 1904. Tucker was officially pronounced dead by the prison doctors at 12.19. Three applications of the current were made.

When Tucker arrived in front of the death chair he drew from his trousers pocket a brief statement which he read. The statement was:

"I hope that God will forgive me for all wrongs I have ever done in my past life. I forgive everybody who has ever wronged me. I am at peace with my Maker. May God have mercy on my soul."

Tucker then sat down in the chair and after the guards had adjusted the straps the warden raised his hand as a signal to the electrician.

After the first aplication of the electricity, Dr. Joseph McLaughlin, the prison surgeon made an examination and announced that the pulse was still beating. After the current had been aplied a second time the surgeon detected a movement of the heart, but when the current was applied a third time Tucker was pronounced dead.

Governor Guild made public yesterday a telegram received by him from President Roosevelt in which the President, after pointing out that he had been requested to interfere with the execution of Charles L. Tucker, declares that in his judgment Governor Guild's decision not to interfere with carring out the sentence on Tucker seemed to him entirely sound and commanded his hearty sympathy.

The Baptism of Tucker was performed during the forenoon by Rev. Bishop of the M. E. church, and Rev. J. F. W. Barnes, the prison chaplain. The prisoners reception of baptism was accompanied by renewed protestation of his innocence.

SENATOR SIMMONS VIEW

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, June 11.—In the Senate today Senator LaFollette made the statement that he had been informed ahtt an assistsant to the commissioner of the five civilized tribes had assisted a legal firm in preparing the Indian roll and had then passed upon the roll in his official capacity. He also said that a brother-in-law of the Senator who had reported the legislation preparing a court system for the Indian Territory had been appointed a member of the court thus created. These statements were made by the Wisconsin Senator in a speech in opposition to the conference report on the Indian Appropriation bill.

The conference report was accepted, however, regardless of this opposition, and that of other Senators, the expression of which consumed the greater part of the day's session. The particular conference provisions to which objection was made were those relating to the enrollment of the Choctaw Indians, the settlement of the claim of Ex-Senator Butler, of North Carolina, and other attorneys in connection with the Coville reservation in Washington, and the adjustment of A. J. Brown, as administrator of certain minor Seminole Indian children.

Senator Tillman renewed his attack upon the provision ratifying the acts of A. J. Brown, in the disbursement of $186,000. He denounced the provision as an "outrage" and said the conferees had promised him to make an effort to prevent the acceptance of the paragraph.

The objection to the provision was based on the ground that the proposed legislation would prevent suits against Brown to recover money imporperly accounted for by Brown. He took especial exception to the employment of Butler and Vale as attorneys for Brown.

Senator Teller said that Brown's accounts as administrator had been approved by the courts and that the Indians being citizens of the United
